

Porthleven School & Pre-School

Newsletter

Friday 20th January 2023

Dear parents and carers,

This week we had a visit from Helston School Jazz Band.

The Jazz band performed 4 pieces to the school, which sounded amazing! they then talked about all the different instruments in the band, naming and playing different sounds on each instrument.

If you are interested in learning an instrument or having lessons in school please visit The Cornwall Music Trust and sign up for lessons.

Porthleven school are taking part in Dress up for Digits on Friday 3rd Feb and having a fun-filled day of maths activities and games, while raising money to support NSPCC services such as Speak out Stay safe and Childline.

We are asking children and staff to dress up to the theme of numbers for a donation to the NSPCC.

Pasties were often eaten the night before the day and were made them ideal for carrying, it's distinctive O shape with the crust acting as a handle, which was discarded to prevent contaminating the food with greasy, possibly arsenic-ridden hands.

All Paper Cornish are passionate about quality pastry, filled with great tasting ingredients, made properly in Cornwall for people who love food.

We are passionate and honest about where our ingredients come from. At Paper Cornish, we believe in supporting our local farmers. Our venison comes from Cornwall, courtesy of Trevor Gidsworthy's family run farm, our potatoes come from third generation Cornish Olive Kettle from Top and our ducks are grown by Anthony West of Topcorn. Cornwell grows some of the highest quality produce in the world, so why go anywhere else?
