

Pass the passage

Instructions:

1. Find a book for a prize and at least 10 pieces of paper to wrap it in.
2. Write out short passages from popular books on pieces of paper and wrap these in between the layers.
3. Pass the parcel in the circle, using music to indicate where the parcel should stop. That child then unwraps that page and reads out the passage.
4. The children guess which book the passage is from.
5. The child with the most correct guesses is given the prize in the middle.

Requires:

pen and paper,
small prize (may be a book), layers of paper to wrap the book and tape.
